Abstract

The abstract is often the only part of the paper to be read, so include your major findings in a useful and concise manner. Include a problem statement, objectives, brief methods, quantitative results, and the significance of your findings. The abstract should be no more than 250 words long.

Keywords: List both specific and general terms that will aid in searches.
Introduction

This section automatically starts a new page.

Put your figures and tables where you would like them, generally after their first mention. Cite each of your tables, figures, and references in the text, either parenthetically (Author et al., 1998) or as part of a sentence, e.g., Bookauthor (1993) stated that.…

Be sure to have someone proofread your paper. It will not be proofread by Conference Organizers.

First-Level Headings Beyond Introduction Use the Heading 1 Style

Type any combination of Heading 1, Heading 2, text and equations in the Normal Style, figures, tables, captions, and lists.

Secondary Headings

For second-level headings, type in your words, select them, and pick out the Heading 2 Style from the pull-down Styles menu. If necessary, use Heading 3, etc., for lower-level headings.

How to Handle Graphics--This is in Heading 2 Style

Put your graphics into the Word document. Color figures will show color in the web version but the paper version will be in black and white. Please test your color figures to be sure they are also legible in black and white.

About Tables

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Material in the table uses the Table Contents Style.</th>
<th>Use standard Word table commands.</th>
<th>Use only solid lines, with no diagonals or broken lines.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

About Lists

If you like you may use the List Bullet or List Number Styles for your lists.

The paragraph above the list is in the List Start Style. This is typically a phrase such as "We found that…” used to introduce the list.
• This is an item in a bullet list. Use bullets unless numbering is necessary.
• This is a second item.

Here is a numbered list:
1. This is number one.
2. This is number two.

Conclusion

Every paper must have a Conclusion section to restate the major findings and suggest further research. It is the last main heading before References. Type any combination of Normal text, Heading 2, equations, figures, tables, captions, and lists.

Acknowledgements

Acknowledgements, if any, are placed here under a Heading 2.

References – Please do not use hyperlinks—

Compose your reference entries following the examples below:

Journal article

Book

Part of a Book

Bulletin or Report

Published Paper

Dissertation or Thesis

Software

Online Source

Patent

Appendix or Nomenclature
This optional section can include lists of nomenclature or abbreviations, reference data, or tables that are too long to include in the body of the article.
